We welcome Kevin Comee, one of the Seminarians of our diocese studying at Saint Beda, Rome. Our Parish will be his home as he continues his studies in the Seminary. However, this year he will also do his placement in our parish for 5 weeks.

Memorial Garden: When young Dominic died, suggestions came up, especially from the Kerala Children that we should erect a memorial for him. The Pastoral Council thought this was a good idea and not to be limited to Dominic, but also those devoted parishioners who have died. While I think of Judy, Maria & Michael to name but a few, you may have names of others to be included in this list. We have already bought a marble Marian statue and we thank the Kerala children for donating £650 towards the building of the grotto which will be situated between the Presbytery and the Parish Church of the Annunciation. We need ideas on the erection of this grotto and donations either in kind or in cash for its realisation.

Family Pilgrimage to Walsingham: For those who are still planning to book a holiday or who are around between Monday 5th – Friday 9th August, could you consider booking a Catholic Family Pilgrimage Conference to Walsingham, Norfolk. Details of this are on the board in the porch or visit: www.newdawn.org.uk, or email registration@newdawn.org.uk, or call 01512280724.

SAVE THE DATE - A Ladies Night to raise funds for the Shine Appeal is being held on Saturday 29th June at St. Edmund Campion. Donations of handbags are requested and can be left at the parish office. Many thanks.
